1. CASE NO. MCI-00-216	2. INVESTIGATING TROOPER Sgt. James W. White	3. I.D. NO. 650	4. TOWN OF CRIME Rochester	5. TN. CD. *	6. DATE OF REPORT 11-09-00
---------------------------	---	--------------------	-------------------------------	--------------------	-------------------------------

On Monday, November 13, 2000, myself and Det. CALLAGHAN, Rochester PD, spoke with,

STEPHANIE BOLDUC DOB: 12-4-73
104B Franklin Street
Somersworth, NH
H - 692-0176
W - 332-0511

BOLDUC had called the Rochester Police Department to inquire about the case because she was acquainted with C. EVANS. BOLDUC told us she had spoken with C. EVANS at about 1030 hours that morning and she believed he called her from BRUCE AUBE'S house. She said C. EVANS was crying and upset. C. EVANS commented to her that "It's awful, I can't believe she died, I can't believe this." C. EVANS told BOLDUC that he, JEFF, and AMANDA had been questioned by the police. When BOLDUC asked him what had happened, he never told her exactly what had happened but related the following story. He told BOLDUC he had picked the baby up at about 1800 hours, he was in a rush and called the babysitter on his cellphone and asked "What the fuck happened to her?" C. EVANS told BOLDUC that the babysitter replied "I don't know." C. EVANS told BOLDUC that the baby had bruises and she was drooling. BOLDUC asked how AMANDA was doing, C. EVANS told BOLDUC she was sitting on the couch and he thought she was just in shock. BOLDUC told us that C. EVANS did not make any comments about the baby's behavior either later in the evening or the following morning. BOLDUC said the conversation lasted only about five minutes or so.

BOLDUC told us she has known C. EVANS for about five or six years, primarily on a social basis. BOLDUC told us she knew C. EVANS ex-wife, TRISTAN. BOLDUC was asked to describe the nature of C. EVANS relationship with TRISTAN. She told us she thought the relationship was good, she said they did fight but just normal type arguments. BOLDUC said she was aware of one fight that occurred when C. EVANS thought TRISTAN was having an affair. According to BOLDUC, TRISTAN hit C. EVANS first and then she thinks that C. EVANS grabbed TRISTAN. BOLDUC said that C. EVANS was very good with KYLE and BRENT, but she had never seen him with KASSIDY.

BOLDUC said she had met AMANDA once, quite awhile ago, at "Banana's" in Portsmouth. BOLDUC said that according to AMANDA and C. EVANS, their relationship was good. AMANDA commented to BOLDUC about how good C. EVANS was with her daughter. CHAD had commented to BOLDUC about how good a mother AMANDA was, very mature and responsible.

BOLDUC told us that C. EVANS family seemed loving, she was not aware of any drug or alcohol abuse by C. EVANS, and she did not know of any gambling problems he might have.
