

These are some flash backs that are coming into mind. Right now I can't even think straight. But I do remember this. I was going to a money management class, and I asked Jeff to watch her. He picked her up at my house in Rochester (my car was in ^{VIP} at the time. So he took her. Said well ^{might as well} ^{bring him} ^{happy} night as well take her overnight cause

~~the~~ it's late. I didn't have my car. So the next day I call he says I'll drop her off soon. Never did. He said he had a lot to do. (And, I thought he was just being lazy.) and didn't feel like driving. (He's very lazy) So I waited + he still didn't show. He kept calling a couple times + said he'd be there soon.

Then I call and said where is he. He's like well it's getting late, might as well take her. So I said okay ~~the~~

~~the~~ I don't know almost ~~the~~ So I call early morning I remember really missing her. And he said he was gonna be Over in a couple of hours. He never showed. Finally around

I got my car in morning, but since he said he was gonna drop her off, I didn't drive to Ketteny together here. (I also ~~was~~ on the computer a lot (I was typing in surveys) or money I did almost 9,000 of them. But I had a deadline so I had to get them done asap. So ~~readily~~ some at the time it was more of a "Euer" But I never used him too

Finally he drops her off around 4 or 5:00

She was so sick + hungry I sat her down on her chair + gave her a bowl of cereal (she usually eats glee with a spoon) but she ~~put~~ ~~her~~ ~~mouth~~ ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~cereal~~ and tried to suck the milk out of the bowl. Then she pulled it up and I kept giving water. But she was drinking really fast. Then I gave her tylenol and pedialyte. Finally she was done drinking. And I held her + cooed with her. ~~for~~ ~~while~~ ~~she~~ ~~sat~~ (suspiciously stayed there for awhile watching me care for her) He just said she was sick + acting weird. And ~~then~~ ~~he~~ ~~was~~ ~~her~~ ~~first~~ ~~thought~~ - then he ~~told~~ ~~me~~ ~~about~~ ~~her~~ ~~telling~~ of the truck on to the ground.

And I started getting mad. (But I never thought he would do anything intentionally. ~~He~~
He also forgot her bag + diapers. So I asked him to watch the kids while I went to Market Basket to get diapers. I came back right away cause he said he had a potty place to clean. So I got back + held her all night. And watched + with her. ~~kept~~ giving her fluids. Then she was sitting on my lap and she ~~was~~ ~~falling~~ ~~asleep~~ Then she rolled her eyes back. But I thought she was sleeping + just held + then she fell asleep. I laid with her + then put her to bed. Chad + I slept beside her that night. He was really concerned + wanted to help. The next day she seemed fine. She was seeming 123s. And seemed happy. Chad did lose his temper with her. But would never ~~love~~ ~~her~~. And when mad would grab her face. But was rough. I can't think of worst happened.
be capable of ~~anything~~ ~~to~~ ~~her~~ ~~either~~
I can't think of worst happened.
I can't think of worst happened.
I can't think of worst happened.
