

February 19, 2002

To: The Evans family

Fr: Kevin Couronis

Re: Letter for Chad

Hello,

I hope everyone is doing well. I have enclosed the letter to be forwarded to the judge for Chad's sentencing. I hope that it will be helpful.

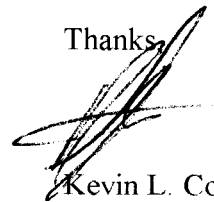

I know these are difficult times. If there is anything I, or any of Chad's friends can do to help, please let me know.

I hope that Chad's attorney has started working on the appeal. I also hope that he will approach it with more diligence this time. It seemed to me that he tried to weigh too much on the testimony of one scientist, and completely forgot to build Chad up as an upstanding, caring person. I feel that the jury needed to like Chad. He should have worked on character first. The jury doesn't care about some guy from NY saying it could be someone else. That is not even mentioning what Jeff's past record was. Seeing his past might also have brought up reasonable doubt.

Enough of my ranting. I hope to be able to attend his sentencing. Can you tell me if I will be able to, and when it will be?

Take care and let me know.

Thanks,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Kevin L. Couronis', with a large, sweeping flourish extending to the right.

Kevin L. Couronis
(603)566-1343