

To: Judge Nadeau,

My name is Kathryn Harvey and I would like a moment of your time to tell you about the Chad Evans I know and care for.

I first met Chad about three years ago when my brother Brandon was dating Chad's sister Nicole. We immediately became friends. Chad is one of the kindest most giving people I know. He is always willing to listen to what I have to say, and never judges. He has a way of making people feel good about themselves; his laugh is contagious, even on the worst of days. Whenever anyone needs help, they can count on Chad. I remember when my brother and Nicole were planning their wedding he was right there offering his help; he ordered food, took care of the cake and was ready to do anything he could. When Brandon and Nicole bought an old house that needed to be completely re-built, Chad was there every weekend working along side with them. He gives all of himself, unselfishly and with all of his heart. He is an incredible father to Brent and Kyle; their love is apparent and beautiful. They are each other's whole lives. There is nothing that Chad would not do for them. If they asked for him to walk on water or go to the moon he would find a way to do it! I hope I can find a man who is as kind and loving and as wonderful of a father as Chad is.

Chad is an amazing person and I am proud to say that he is my friend. Anyone who can call Chad Evans their friend is truly blessed.

Thank you,

Kathryn Harvey
