

Dear Judge Nadeau,

I know that Chad Evans has been found guilty by a jury of his peers. I can accept the verdict because I believe in the judicial system that we adhere to in the United States.

But I must tell you that, in knowing Chad that I have a hard time believing that he would be capable of doing the things that he has been found guilty of.

In the time that I have known him he has a good friend. He has been loyal and trustworthy. I have seen him interact with young children and he always seemed to enjoy his time that he spent with them.

In the short time I have known him he became a good friend of mine. Anytime I was with him I felt as though he was as good of a friend as many of my lifelong friends.

I hope you take these thoughts into consideration when you decide on your sentence for Chad.

Sincerely,

Eric Lepisto
