

To: Judge Tina Nadeau,

I have known Chad for over 15 years, he was fifteen when he came to work and I was amazed on his quick to learn, eagerness to please his supervisors and coworkers. He worked with determination to better himself daily. He was promoted thru his hard work.

During the 13 years I worked as his supervisor, but on the personal level, I would have been very proud to call him my son.

He was gentle and caring person especially towards children.

I have 3 kids ages 18, 16 + 11, when I had my son, Chad was the first one to visit myself and hold my son. My daughter at the time was ages 7 + 5 and my daughters adored Chad, even thru Chad's siblings. I would see Chad almost every weekend, my husband + myself would visit with Chads parents, and Chad would watch the kids and play games and entertain them.

My kids have respected and loved Chad through out the years.

Myself and my husband do not believe Chad has hurt anyone Especially a child.

Truely in our hearts we do not believe any of this, Chad is the most caring person we've ever known.

I + my husband truely would trust Chad with our kids all these years and more.

Sincerely,

Amanda Mills
