

I have known Chad Evans now for about two years, and in that short time, I have known him to be the kindest, honest, caring and intelligent man I have ever met. Chad is the type of person to do anything for anyone. I always knew I could count on him for anything at all, he would be there willing and wanting to help.

Chad is the greatest father, I have ever met. He always put his children above any need or want he had. He was caring and loving to all three children, Kyle, Brent and Cassidy. I got to spend a great deal of time with his children and him. He was always active with children, always playing and in general just spending time with them. It was very obvious that Chad cared for and loved all three children a great deal. There was also this unique bond between Chad and his son, Kyle. They were as if they were one person, Kyle always asking for dad, and loved spending time with him. I was also obvious the love between Chad and Brent, and Chad and Cassidy. He was always the first one in the pool and out playing with the children. Chad would be the one getting them food and making sure to keep them all happy. He also was always teaching all three children the basics of life and anything else they had questions to. Kyle is the smartest kid I have ever met, thanks to Chad teaching him so well. Chad explained the answer to any question he had. Chad always spent a majority of his day doing what he loved most, spending quality time with all three children.

Chad not only an amazing father, but also a very intelligent man. He knows everything about anything. Any financial advice

... or questions I had, he could answer them. He knows so much about
... stocks and bonds, that he was able to help me invest wisely for
... my future. Chad also helped me get my finances back in line after
... a year or two of bad decisions on my part. I also seek work
... advice from him, whereas we are both employed by the same
... company. All the guidance he gave me, made me a better manager
... and a better all around person.

... Chad is an energetic and enjoyable person to be around.
... He took time to show me special weight lifting techniques to ... build up my muscles. At the time, I do not realize he knew
... how much that meant to me, but it did mean the world to me.
... It made me feel good that he took his own time to help me do
... something I have been struggling with all my life. Chad is an
... enjoyable person to be around because he makes everything so much
... fun, and he has a great personality. Last year, we planned a trip
... to Canobie Lake Park. The day was a memorable experience for all, it
... was a very hot day, but somehow you did not notice it with all
... the fun we were having. Chad also arranged for us to go out and
... have a great night out on the town. He was always ready to ... go and looking forward to a good time no matter what was
... going on around him.

... Chad is also a family orientated individual. Chad is very
... close to his parents and his siblings. The whole Evans family is
... exactly like Chad, caring, kind and very loving. Chad spent as ... much time keeping in contact with his family as he could.
... When he does come home, there is always lots of time being
... spent doing things as a family. They would have dinners together
... or just simply sit around talking all night long.

To put everything into perspective, Chad is the most amazing person, I have ever had the opportunity to get to know. He is a loving father above anything else. He is an energetic and enjoyable person to be around. Chad is a great asset to a society that is so diverse and ever changing. I believe that, Chad Evans is the greatest individual that I will ever get the pleasure of meeting and knowing.

Sincerely,
