Re Chad Evans

Dear Judge Nadeau ,

I really do not know where to begin or even how to express how much Chad Evans means to me. He has always been a great friend to many others and myself. I struggle everyday to try and understand how such an awful thing could happen to such a kind-hearted man. Chad has always been an outstanding human being. Regardless of how Chad happens to become a part of your life, if you meet him through work, or by chance you were proud to say Chad Evans is my friend. When I think about Chad the definition of true friend comes to mind. No matter how long it had been since you had seen each other you always knew he was there for you. He was always just a telephone call away. It never mattered what time day or night if you needed him he would be there no questions asked. That is the kind of person he was. It did not matter if you knew him for a short while or a long time he was there for you. It never even mattered if you were a total stranger he is always willing to lend a helping hand. A quick story comes to mind when thinking back on how he helped people in his daily life. I remember being at work with him one day and saw a homeless man picking in the trashcan outside of the McDonalds Restaurant where we worked together. Chad went outside brought the man inside sat him down and feed him a free meal. The homeless man was so grateful to him for that meal. Now I know that a free meal at McDonalds does not seem like much to you or I but it meant everything to that man who may have not eaten that day if it was not for Chad. He was always doing things like that. He is just a naturally caring person. Always, willing to help the less fortunate. Chad as you may know, is also head strong about kids getting a good education. That is why he became the youngest member of the Keene School Board. Always, preaching the message that a good education is so very important. Chad is plain and simply a great friend, brother, son and father. He has one of the biggest hearts of any person I have ever known. In closing, I would like to thanks you for your time and any consideration this letter may have in reference to the great character of Chad Evans.

Sincerely,

Diana Woods

Hi family,

This letter was really hard to start. I'm not sure it will help. But, I tried.

I hope you "all" doing okay.

Keep your fingers crossed. I hope everything turns out alright.

U'll see you all March 31st.

Best wishes,

Diana 😊
