

NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE POLICE
CONTINUATION OF INVESTIGATION REPORT

3128

1. CASE NO. MCI00-0216	2. INVESTIGATING TROOPER J. C. Rockey	3. I.D. NO. 696	4. TOWN OF CRIME Rochester	5. TN. CD. 47	6. DATE OF REPORT 08/16/2001
---------------------------	--	--------------------	-------------------------------	------------------	---------------------------------

On August 16, 2001 at approximately 0832 hours I met with:

Hinton, Jeremy
[REDACTED]

720 B Central Avenue
Dover, New Hampshire 03820
[REDACTED]

I served Hinton with a subpoena to appear before a grand jury. I asked Hinton if he was aware of any contact between Chad Evans and Amanda Bortner. He said no, he wasn't. I cleared his residence a short time later.

At approximately 1100 hours on the same date I received a call from Hinton at Troop A. Hinton told me he hadn't been completely honest with me that morning and wanted to meet me to talk about it. We scheduled to meet at the Greenland Police Department that afternoon.

At approximately 1500 hours Sergeant James White and I met with Hinton at the Greenland Police Department.

Hinton said Amanda stayed at his apartment in Dover for approximately 2 weeks sometime between mid April to mid June. She called and asked if she could stay. She couldn't stay with the people she was living with anymore.

Hinton said he loaned Evans his car in late April. When Amanda came to stay with him she was driving the car. While Evans never told him, he knew they must have had contact, he wasn't stupid.

Hinton said he only spoke to Bortner once about the case. He asked her if the stuff in the paper was true. She said no.

Hinton said he only spoke to Evans about the case one time. Evans told him, I didn't do this. Hinton said, I know.

Hinton said both Bortner and Evans have keys to his apartment. One time he came home and they were both there. Hinton thought it was in May, sometime around Memorial Day.

Hinton said the only other time Bortner stayed at his home was one other time back in the beginning. She showed up on his doorstep and asked if she could stay. She stayed one night. Then she went to Texas.

Hinton said the time he caught Bortner and Evans at his apartment was before the two weeks she stayed at his place. Hinton told them when he caught them, listen guys, I don't want any part of this. One of you needs to leave. Hinton said he left and came back the next day and they were both gone. He said the 2 weeks Bortner stayed with him must have been in June.

Hinton said he hadn't talked to Bortner in a while. He had a phone number for her in Maine, her friend Mary's house.

Hinton said he had given Bortner money once. He knew she had gotten an income tax return. Bortner had told him she got a couple grand.

1-14-01 15-21-01	Page 1 of 1	SIGNED Jill C. Rockey Trooper J. C. Rockey	DATE 10/02/2001
---------------------	-------------	---	--------------------