I am writing you on behalf of a good friend and former employer. We met at McD's in Rochester near the Lilac Mall, and when I went to County Jail in the fall of 2000, I ran in to Chad Ewens. We had many talks, none of which involved his case, and I do remember when he bailed out. I was left with two very multi-talented men. The only things I ever saw or even heard about Chad's case was what was in the newspaper. At the time I was in a holding tank w/o a TV.

Shortly after ~~the~~<sup>Chad</sup> left I was called out for a visit. But what struck me as odd was the fact that it was in the AM when my family was working. It happened to be two investigators from the State at least that's what I remember. I told them I was nervous because my Pub Def. told me not to talk to any one and they told me that they ① would cover me there. That I had nothing to worry about that they were there investigating the Chad Evans case about what he did.

I told them that "I don't believe he even did it" when they asked me why I explained to them that "we worked at Mc'd's in Rochester together and that we worked with kids of all ages, New Born to teens" and that I couldn't see him doing this to any one. I know that got them upset. They told me I could go back to my cell. When I got back to my holding cell I was put into a single cell by self. One of the guys I was in with asked me what I said I told them the same thing that I told the investigators he then told me I was an idiot and a piece of shit for not saying what ever he did.

To day I have have the same feelings about Chad Evans I Don't Believe he did it.

③ I'm not good with names I am better at faces. I hope that this info helps. please remember that it has been many years since then and the fact that I still feel that chad is INNOCENT of all of this.

please contact me if you have any more questions for me. I'll do my best to help out an old friend.

Sincerely
