

To Judge Tina Wade,

My name is Trisha Drew and I am writing to tell you about the Chad Evans I know. I have known Chad for 10 years and the best thing I can say is he is a true friend whenever I need someone to talk to or help me out with any problems, big or small I know that Chad is only a phone call away. I know that he will always listen to me and help me out any way he can. When I was going thru the Break up of my seven year marriage I was very hard on myself and my five year old daughter Britney. Chad was there for us. He lent me money but most of all moral support. He gave me his shoulder to lean on and to cry on. I will never forget that!!

My daughter adores him! She always asks me "when is Chad coming to play with me" He always takes the time to sit on the floor and color or do puzzles with her and it means so much to her. For her birthdays and Christmas he always buys her gifts that are educational. He really cares about children and their education.

Chad has got to be one of the best fathers in the world, to his sons Kyle and Brent that I know of. He has so much love and pride in his boys its unreal. You can feel and see it whenever they are together or if hes just talking about them. I only hope I can find a man that will treat my daughter with so much love and compassion. I and my daughter will be truly blessed. Chad would never intentionally harm a child, he loves them to much. If you could only see and know the Chad that his family and all his many friends know you would be astounded. I urge you to take an hour or a few hours and talk to him! He is one of the most intelligent, giving, kindest people I know and I'm sure you'll see that too! I can tell you this once you're his friend you will be his friend for life you will never be forgotten!!

As you decide his fate please remember how many people truly need Chad in their lives. He really is an exceptional person and anyone lucky enough to know him is truly blessed. Sound untrue? Its the Chad Goans that I know!

Thank you for taking the time out of your busy schedule to listen to me

Sincerely,
Trishandra
