

Dear Judge,

I am writing to tell you about my brother, Chad Evans. He is a hard working, loving, supportive and giving person.

Chad has served his community by being on the Keene school board right after getting out of high school. He did this because he felt changes were needed.

I know him to be a gentle caring father and step-father. He also loves spending time with his dog Cairo. In this respect we have it in common as I myself have four dogs and four cats. The minute Chad steps in the doorway at my house the cats make a beeline for him because they know an animal lover when they see one.

He has also been helpful to co-workers. I have known him to offer his spare room to a co-worker whether it is for one night because of bad weather or for a couple of months so they can save money to get a place of their own.

As for being a supportive person he shows that to me everytime he asks how I am doing. When I was having problems in my marriage he was right there for me whether it was a cute card he send me in the mail or just a call to find out how I am.

He also loves the outdoors. In regards to this he loves camping with his son. He especially loves coming over to our grandparents farm and walking the trails.

I'm closing I want to say I am proud that Chad is my brother and my friend.

Sincerely,

Jani Evans Napoleano
